

Code Amendments

The Code Amendments are proposed changes to the existing Code of Green Lake County. The information posted below relates to amendments affecting floodplain, shoreland, and zoning land use ordinances of Green Lake County. The reasons for the proposed changes vary. Each proposed amendment has a staff report or summary of changes briefly explaining the amendment. These amendments are posted at this location to allow the public the opportunity to view the material and, if so desired, attend the public hearing scheduled for the amendment.
